Chartres Cathedral

CHARTRES

*Chartres is its own eulogy eternally, Chartres, most splendid
Of all cathedrals! Is this not the French Acropolis? .....
Here our ancestors created their masterpiece,
at a time
When the genius of the race was passing through a period Of Infinite power like that which marked the apotheosis of Greece.*

*We, pale shadows of those one-dead men, come to drink
At springs whose source was their faith and their genius - Springs of light.
To understand and to know this matchless Epic is to grow in stature. The light that shines on us here is a supernatural light.*
