In the 50's, 60's and 70's, every town in America was adding tv programs to their broadcast schedule that highlighted the exhilarating music of the era. Philadelphia had 'American Bandstand'. Cleveland had 'Upbeat'. Nashville had 'Night Train'. LA had the 'Lloyd Thaxton Show'. Chicago had 'Soul Train.' Now, Palm Springs has 'THE ELDORADO BEAT,' and you are exclusively invited to join the audience in a live taping of this enthusiastic dance variety extravaganza.

Local treasures, The Gand Band will perform your favorite tunes from the early days of Rock-n-Roll on black and white tv, and travel the decades into full Technicolor. Put on your dancing shoes, dress in garb from the 50's through the 70's and relive the sounds of the Mid-Century and beyond!

You can enjoy free-flowing vintage specialty cocktails, wine, and beer to complement our retro menu. PS Underground Chef Dave has created four secret, classic courses that reflect the music and the dishes you know and love from a moment in time that was simpler, yet still rich in culture.

Join us at the table and become a member of our studio audience as we bring the golden age of television's musical variety shows back to life with...
